FEDERATION PLANS TO HELP CARRY SCHOOL BONDS

Special Committee Will Be Organized; Hear Reports on Department Work

At the first regular meeting of the Glendale Federation of Parent-Teacher associations, which was held in the cafeteria of the Intermediate school yesterday afternoon, Mrs. John Robert White presiding, it was decided that a special meeting of the federation would be called prior to the school bond election of October 11 for the purpose of organizing a committee to work with the school authorities in assisting with the success of the school bond issue.

After the meeting was called to order by the president, the minutes of the all-day meeting of June 10 and of the special meeting, held August 12 at the home of Mrs. White, were read by Mrs. M. S. Kuehny, secretary, and approved. This was followed by the flag salute, led by Mrs. Winona Crawford. The report of the treasurer, Mrs. W. P. Priaulx, was read and showed that there was the sum of $221.83 in the treasury and $118 in the scholarship fund.

Mrs. R. B. Moore, chairman of education; Mrs. W. Crawford, chairman of patriotism; Mrs. W. H. Dotson, chairman of juvenile court; Mrs. R. C. Horner, chairman of philanthropy, spoke of the work of their departments and asked that the association presidents send the names of the various chairmen of departments to the federation secretary, which would greatly facilitate them in planning the work for the coming year.

Mrs. Crawford stated that her committee would plan a short patriotic program for the meeting of the federation October 12, which will be Columbus Day.

Mrs. Horner spoke of attending the meeting last Monday night of the Glendale Welfare Council and told of the assistance being given by other organizations. A motion car-

C. W. Letts Resigns From National Guard, Glendale's Company

C. W. Letts, lieutenant in 160th regiment, National Guards, member of the Fifth Separate Company, which has headquarters in Glendale, who has resigned.

The 160th regiment, California National Guards, today loses through resignation one of its most effficient and best-liked officers, Liedtenant Charles W. Letts of the Fifth Separate company, which has headquarters in Glendale.

Lieutenant Letts, who is a veteran of the world war and a popular member of Elks' drill team, did much of the work connected with organizing the guards here and it is with real regret that the enlisted men whom he recruited see him sever his connection with the company.

Expert at Targets

During the world war, the lieutenant served with the Ninety-first division and the Military Intelligence division. He has had four years' regular army experience and qualified as an expert rifleman and expert pistol shot, obtaining the latter rating the first year he was in the service. He was one of the highest-qualified pistol shots in the northwestern department of the old regulars.

In 1917, after America entered the war, he was detailed from the regular army to the Ninety-first Division as drill instructor and from this organization he was very highly recommended, holding a reserve officer's commission at the close of the war.

Mr. Letts in civilian life is employed by the Standard Oil company.

PORTABLE HOUSES FOR SCHOOLS CONSIDERED

City Board Tonight Will Face Emergency of Providing Pupils Class Rooms

Emergency methods of accommodating the unexpectedly large grammar school attendance this fall will be discussed tonight at the Intermediate school by the city board of education. The proposed bond issue for $260,000 will not provide immediate relief.

"School attendance in Glendale has increased 62½ per cent in two years," stated Richardson D. White, superintendent of the elementary school system, this morning. "That means 1078 more students. And in that time we have built only four new school rooms accommodating forty pupils each."

Definite recommendations to provide for the present contingency will be made at the meeting by Mr. White. He has outlined a program which he will submit for the board's approval. He has already compiled figures and statistics which will be available for instant inspection.

Bungalows Favored

Portable bungalows, which can be unbolted and moved from school to school each term as the attendance varies, are held in high estimation by Mr. White.

"On the first day of school last year 2169 pupils enrolled," said he. "I hate to admit what a poor guesser I am, but I calculated that the registration this term would be between 2500 and 2600. The first day this term showed an addition of over 600 children over last year. Monday 2819 children reported at school.

"We knew that we wouldn't have accommodations to provide properly for even the expected 2500 boys and girls. Consequently, a short time ago we went ahead, investigated and got prices on portable bungalows. These figures are now ready for instant use."

Each Accommodates Class

The bungalows, which Mr. White has in mind are similar to those being used in the Los Angeles school system. They are somewhat smaller than those used by the high school. These particular classrooms are not portable. The regular portable bungalows contain one room, light and well ventilated, and are constructed especially for school use. They accommodate about forty seats.

The best price that could be obtained was $1200 per bungalow and one firm stated they would try and have them ready for occupancy in about two weeks although they could not guarantee the date of delivery.

At least three or four of these bungalows are needed immediately, according to Mr. White. He was reticent about mentioning any definite locations but stated that they should be placed wherever needed the most.

The serious cases of congestion are in the Columbus and Pacific schools.

Pastor of Methodist Church Is Honored on Birthday Anniversary

Last night was the regular prayer meeting night at the First Methodist church, and unbeknown to the pastor, Doctor C. M. Crist, members of the church had been doing a little work on the side to assist in the celebration of his birthday anniversary, which occurred yesterday. There was an unusually large number out at the meeting last night, even the side rooms being filled and still some people were standing.

Just as Doctor Crist was about to announce the benediction the doors opened and Mrs. C. D. Lusby came in with a wonderful three-tier birthday cake on a large tray. Following her was Mrs. Charles Starkey, with a bouquet of bronze dahlias, a flower for every year, which she presented to him with a very appropriate little speech in which she expressed the sentiment that they were just a small token of appreciation and love for Doctor Crist. In spite of the fact that he was almost speechless with surprise and delight, Doctor Crist thanked the women with the words, which when coming from a thankful heart as it did, are all that are needed, simply "Thank You."

PIPE REPLACEMENT BY BOND ISSUE IS PROPOSED

All Property Holders Would Pay, Not Water Department, Is Project Outlined

Replacement of water service mains throughout the city will be financed through a bond issue—if the City Council reaches this decision and the bonds, amount yet undetermined, are voted.

Or the City Council may decide to make the corporate limits of Glendale one assessment district and levy a tax on each lot, whether served with water or not, to pay for the cost of replacing service mains.

Or the City Council may do neither—and determine an entirely different method of financing.

Further, the council may decide to put into force the policy already adopted—that of having property owners affected pay for the pipe replacements.

But, judging from individual expressions of the councilmen, this plan will be discarded—provided a more equitable solution is advanced.

Hold Special Meeting

In other words, putting it bluntly, the City Council, seeking a just method of financing replacement of water service mains, is puzzled, baffled, in a maze—at sea, as it were.

All of which developed at the special meeting held at the City Hall last night when about thirty property holders of Elk and Oak streets appeared for a conference with the councilmen relative to proposed improvements on those thoroughfares.

The subject for discussion was street paving, sidewalks and curbs. But it quickly developed that the Elk and Oak street folk would have none of those until they had been given four-inch water service mains. And they produced evidence to prove they are entitled to the pipes—the councilmen admitted that.

So the conference, which lasted nearly three hours, resolved into a discussion of how to finance the replacement of water service mains all over the city. Past history was freely quoted until Mayor Spencer Robinson said:

"Let's forget about the past. Let's start with the present—right now. Let's determine how we can proceed, financially, and I believe we

Business Men Will Get Opportunity to Exercise at School

"Gym classes for business men, who desire to take advantage of the high school facilities probably will be organized in connection with the new night school," stated Principal A. L. Ferguson.

"These classes likely will be under the supervision of Normal C. Hayhurst, athletic coach of the high school. They will provide a fine chance for office men and others, who are more or less inactive physically during the day, to keep up their pep and get a lot of fine, healthy exercise. The entire equipment of the school gymnasium will be available. So far we have not considered girls' gym classes, but they may come later.

"Classes in shop work, auto mechanics, mechanical drawing, typewriting, book-keeping and commercial subjects practically are assured but other studies will be arranged after the registration at the high school building tonight. The office will be open from 7 until 9 o'clock."

Houston, chairman of the exhibit of flowers, motored to San Fernando yesterday to look over the large tents which have been erected and to see what space had been allotted for the Glendale exhibits.

These chairmen of committees were very much pleased and also surprised at the immense size of the large tents which have been erected. A special tent has been put up for the art exhibit. The walls of this have been lined with composition board with picture moldings from which the pictures will be hung. On a raised platform a large glass case has been built in which other art exhibits, including hand-painted china, etc., will be exhibited. This case, which insures exhibitors of the safety of their articles, is surrounded by a rail.

Midland Lyceum to Give Entertainments, Starting October 11

The Midland Lyceum Bureau has been secured for the coming season to give a series of five splendid entertainments at the Palace Grand theatre, beginning Tuesday, October 11, and followed by one entertainment a month. This bureau is well-known in the east and comes highly recommended as giving first-class entertainments.

The first of the series will be given by Esther and Clayton Staples, noted artists in crayon and sand. It is stated that this is a most artistic performance and entirely new in its conception. With each evening's program there will be shown educational films and music from the Wurlitzer organ.

Other programs of the course will be that given November 1 by the DeWillo Concert company, which, it is said, is in a class by itself as one of the most unique companies in concert work. DeWillo is a recognized master on the concertina and will be assisted by a violinist, pianist and soprano. On November 22 the LaSalle Male Quartet will give a very interesting program. This quartet is considered one of the three best in Lyceum work. It has appeared in every state in the union and has met with marked success. Ernest J. Powell, one of the most popular and forceful speakers on chautauqua and lyceum platforms, will appear December 27. The last program will be given January 31, when the Lillian Ringsdorf Concert company will present a delightful program of readings, soprano solos, violin and piano numbers.

Lander Stevens, in Person, Is Presented At Glendale Theatre

"Keeping Up With Lizzie" is a picture that is full of enjoyable, thoroughly clean, and care-free entertainment of the very highest order, and is a remarkably true and clever picturization of the book itself. Those who have read the book will be delighted as its characters come to life before their eyes at the Glendale theatre, and as the scenes portray the humor of the story in a way that makes it more deliciously gratifying than ever. One follows the doings of Lizzie with rapt attention and expectancy, all the way from Pointview to finishing school in the east, abroad, and back home again with the count, where her old sweetheart, Dan, finally makes a strong come-back much to the discomfiture of the distinguished suitor from abroad. And of course, it wouldn't be an Irving Bacheller story, or a Rockett Film Corporation production, if it didn't end up in just the way that everybody likes, but as a surprise, not in just the way that everybody expected.

Lander Stevens, who plays the role of "Soc" Potter, was introduced to his fellow townspeople by Manager William A. Howe. The widely known character actor was warmly received. He will appear in person at the close of the first performance again tonight. Several other film numbers are on the program.

Series of Sermons by Rev. Edmonds on W. J. Bryan Article

The pastor of the Presbyterian church, Rev. W. E. Edmonds, announces a series of Sabbath morning sermons based on a remarkable article, "Back to God," by William Jennings Bryan, in the "New Era Magazine." This magazine is the official organ of the Presbyterian church and the article is published in the September number. Mr. Bryan writes as a consistent church member and an elder in the Presbyterian church, and his article, which cuts to the bone, has caused quite a stir in many Presbyterian circles in the United States.

These sermons will be given at intervals on Sabbath mornings during the coming months and the dates will be announced later. The series is as follows:

"Back to Moses," "Back to Bethel," "Back to Jesus," "Back to Calvary," "Back to Antioch," "Back to Patmos."

Secretary Rhoades Is Invited to Meetings

Two invitations were received by Secretary James M. Rhoades of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce this morning.

One was to attend a meeting of the Commercial Secretaries of Southern California at Big Bear Lake. They will leave Los Angeles Saturday morning, September 24, at 8:15 o'clock on a special Pacific Electric car for San Bernardino. From that point stages will convey them over the rim of the world and in the evening the party will cross the lake by motorboat and spend the night at one of the resorts. On Sunday they will enjoy a motor tour through Big Bear Valley and return to San Bernardino at 5 o'clock.

The other invitation was from the National Association of Commercial Secretaries which stated that the annual convention would be held in New Orleans, Louisiana, October 24, 25 and 26.

PORTABLE HOUSES FOR SCHOOLS CONSIDERED

Here crowded conditions are represented at their very worst. These buildings are over on the west side. Cerritos school, on the south is also badly crowded. Broadway school is in the same class. The Colorado school comes next and that is fairly full. The Doran school is crowded in some classes, but other classes are all right. This building has an extra room which was intended for community socials and civic affairs. This room can be devoted to school purposes although it is not suitably arranged. It would accommodate about thirty children.

"Some rooms," remarked Mr. White, "have fifty and sixty children in them and only forty-five seats. The pupils have to sit two in a seat. Whether or not the board decides to purchase the bungalows, additional equipment must be ordered at once."

U. S. Senate Will Lose Its Timepeice

By FRASER EDWARDS
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON — Senators have become uneasy over the prospect of losing their "clock," Senator Carroll Smalley Page of Vermont.

The patriarch of the upper house has announced that he will quit public life when his term expires in March, 1923. He will then be 80 years of age. The duty of keeping the senate on time will fall to some younger senators.

Since his election in 1908, Page has been the "official" timepiece of the senate. If he failed to appear in the senate as the hands of the clock over the vice president's chair pointed to exactly one minute of noon, senators thought the "official" clock was wrong.

Senator Page at 78 is sturdy and vigorous, rated as a millionaire, and wise enough to have most satisfactorily administered one of the highest offices within the gift of the people of Vermont. His genius for punctuality is solely responsible, he says.

Great, great gandsire Page surveyed and appropriately named Hyde park, the little Vermont village that "Calf Skin" Page, as he is known to hide users the world over, was to put on the map as the home of the largest raw skin factory in the world. On his twelfth birthday, Page went to work in the tanning factory as an apprentice. Punctuality on his twenty-first anniversary, he bought out the establishment and has continued to run it on schedule time ever since.

He did not procrastinate about getting into public life. He was elected to the Vermont legislature as soon as he attained the eligible age and elevated to the state senate upon reaching the minimum constitutional age limit. Election as governor, state bank examiner and senator followed with the Page promptness.

SCATTERERS OF TRASH

Many people scatter their trash broadcast through the land because they have not imagination enough to see how such action can rebound to their own hurt. There are many who are neither homeless nor landless themselves who can still act and live, so far as the rights of others are concerned, as though they were a race of nomads wandering across a trackless desert of swiftly cleansing sand. Their mental processes are as obvious as the trail they leave behind them in the landscape. We can understand them, but we do not like them.

Asserts Shipping Lines Are Not Making Money

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—"No shipping line is making money with the present scales of passenger and freight rates," said George Wells, traffic manager of the United States shipping board today.

"I advise that all lines increase their freight rates so that they can continue in business," he added.

Wells denied that the United States shipping board intended to cut its ocean rate.

The usual fall cut in passenger rates has gone into effect on almost all lines, Wells said. But he doubted whether any line at this time would cut its freight rates.

Laziest Man Likes Jail Without Trial

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 7.—The laziest man in the world was sentenced by Judge Anderson.

Tom Stratos, charged with being a vagrant, was arraigned. Tom said he could easily clear himself of the charge if he were not too lazy, as seeing as it would be too much work to go through with a trial, he would have to plead guilty.

Women Brave Death In Auto Trip; Free Picture on Display

The Mojave desert holds no terrors for Neil Shipman and Marjorie Cole, who recently won a wager of $1000 that they could drive their Essex Arrow motor car to the bottom of the Devil's Punch Bowl, in the midst of a desolate sand dune country. As a result of their feat, they have been acclaimed champion women motor car drivers of America. This verdict is being confirmed wherever the story of their marvelous drive becomes known.

How these girls faced death a dozen times will be shown in free movies today, Friday and Saturday from 8 to 10 p. m. in the display rooms at 230 North Brand boulevard, of the Glendale Hudson Motor company.

"The Trail of the Arrow" is the title of the film. It was so named because Miss Shipman and Miss Cole followed arrows placed by Bob Battle, asserted to be a "woman hater," who made the bet that no woman could perform the feat.

Dr. H. R. Harrower Buys Fine Piano to Put in New Building

Dr. Henry R. Harrower has purchased a Haines Brothers' baby grand piano from the Barnes-Shuck Music company for the assembly room of the new administration building of his laboratory which is located at the corner of Broadway and Belmont street.

This beautiful instrument, which is finished in mahogany, insurs an expenditure of $1150, but is considered only in fitting with the wonderful establishment into which the laboratory offices will be moved the first of next week.

Messrs. Barnes and Shuck feel quite elated at placing this fine piano with Mr. Harrower as it shows the growing tendency to equip assembly halls with instruments of tonal quality and in harmony with the appreciative audiences which are to be found here.

Part Time Classes Being Organized at Local High School

Part time classes of special interest to those for whom they are intended are being organized at the high school to conform with state law. This requires that all boys and girls between the ages of 16 and 18 who have not graduated from high school, must attend school at least four hours a week.

Night school work does not exclude boys under 18 who work from enrolling with the board of education for the necessary four hours' school work during the day time.

Some of these classes are in machine shop and other practical subjects. Part time students have a large range of subjects.

Production May Be Brought to Verdugo

Mrs. Ella W. Richardson, Mrs. R. W. Meeker, Miss Ida Waite and Miss Thelma Theobald attended the Shakespearean production at the Hollywood Bowl last night, as the guests of Miss Ina Whitaker. Some had witnessed the production of "A Midsummer Night's Dream," which was the one given last night, but declared that they had never seen it put on so effectively as in the natural out-door setting.

Miss Esther Ralston and mother, Mrs. Mae Ralston, formerly of Glendale, took the parts of some of the leading characters of the play.

Pasadena and Long Beach have made arrangements with the management to have the Shakespearean productions brought to thase cities and there has been considerable discussion about having it brought to Glendale and given in the Verdugo Woodland theatre, but nothing definite has been done along that line as yet.

Strike Insurance Issue in Important Hearing

BALTIMORE, Md., Sept. 15.—A suit that probably will have a vital bearing on the nation-wide battle between capital and labor over the open shop is under way in courts here today.

Involved is the question as to whether so-called "strike insurance" companies are legal insurance concerns.

Efforts of Thomas J. Keating, Maryland insurance commissioner, to have the Employers' Mutual Insurance and Service company, a strike insurance concern, declared a bankrupt, were temporarily held up today by Judge James J. Dobler, in the county court. A preliminary hearing was postponed until tomorrow.

According to charges filed by Keating half of the probable claims against the company total $2,949,678.17, while assets are only $2,,000,000.

BAY STATE FOLKS TO PICNIC

The Massachusetts State society has enjoyed three historic celebrations and now President Paul W. Zimmerman proposes to close the summer season with a picnic reunion in Sycamore Grove park, Los Angeles, Saturday afternoon, September 17. He invites all former bay state folks to spend the afternoon in the park, hear a fine program and enjoy their 5 o'clock basket picnic suppers. Rev. R. P. Shuler (Fighting Bob) will tell of Plymouth Rock ancestors. Dr. Dillon Bronson will deliver a greeting from "a Boston globe trotter who after three times around the world sings more gladly than ever "Home again, home again in America where the air is full of sunshine and the flag is full of stars."

HEAVY TRUCKS HURT ROAD

WATSONVILLE—Complaints received by the board of supervisors of Santa Cruz county indicate that the roads of this district are being seriously injured by trucks carrying the fruit crop. Many of the trucks, according to Supervisor Fred Kemp, are carrying from 15 to 25 tons a trip.

While the improved portions of the roads are not suffering heavily from the strain, the unimproved portions where work had been done preparatory to surfacing or laying highway is reported to have been badly damaged. The heavy loads are explained by the fruit men by the fact that they are all trying to rush their crop to Watsonville in order to insure its storage.

Developing Glendale

Many people think of money deposited in a bank as lying idle and out of circulation.

But such is not the case. A bank, in reality, resembles a great financial reservoir which is fed by deposits and which can be drawn on for the upbuilding of the community.

Thus our depositors are playing an important part in the growth and prosperity of Glendale by enabling us to devote resources of over $1,800,000 toward the development of local enterprises.

BABY EXHIBIT WILL BE ONE FEATURE VALLEY'S FAIR

Competition Is Open to All Children Under 6 Years; Honor Roll Planned

A modern, scientific baby show will be given under the auspices of the women's committee of the San Fernando Valley Fair, in which several hundred babies will be entered. This part of the fair is open to all children under 6 years of age, from any part of the county or state. Every day from 10 o'clock in the morning until 4 in the afternoon, babies can be entered for mental and physical examination. A highly efficient staff of doctors, nurses and psychologists will be on hand to give various tests and make a record of how the small entrants register.

On Saturday, the last day of the fair, all children whose tests show 90 per cent, or better, will be placed on an honor roll and their names will be officially announced. At stated hours, throughout the week, there will be constructive lectures on different phases of child welfare, so that mothers who attend the show will receive considerable education, while learning the exact physical and mental condition of their children.

Amateur Culinary Show

Another department of women's activities will be an amateur culinary exhibit, in which home made foods, fruits, preserves, and all kinds of edibles, will be entered. Three other departments come under the women's supervision, all being in the amateur class. These are a needlework exhibit, plants and flowers division and an art department.

Women's clubs, as individual organizations, are preparing to take an active part in the fair in two lines. One is the running of a home-made cakes and pies concession, with the booth construction costs presented to them by the fair association, with the understanding that all proceeds from the concession be used in building or improving clubhouses. The other effort each club is making, is to have its membership participate in the fair one hundred per cent, as the fair association will award banners to every club which can claim this honor.

The fair opens on September 19 and closes on September 24. Glendale organizations and individuals are taking considerable interest in the exposition.

Chief of Police Is Presented With Plums By Day Desk Officer

James Mann, day desk sergeant at the police station, yesterday presented Chief of Police J. P. Lampert with a crate of prune plums.

"I am not looking for any plums," commented the chief, yet he took these plums. He is watching the contest of several who seek his job with keen interest. Mr. Lampert has resigned, effective October 1, as he wishes to retire from police work.

Members of the City Council and William H. Reeves, city manager, have been considering applications for the position of chief of police for several weeks. A thorough investigation into the relative merits of the various candidates has been made, it is announced.

Believe in Signs? You Do? Then Read This, for It's True

You have heard of Aesop's Fables Modernized?

Allright, here's one as told by Al Cawood, house manager at the Glendale Theatre:

"Twenty years ago I was operating a photograph gallery in a small eastern town with the usual one Main street. There was an Irishman and a Dutchman in the same line of business—one on each side of me, several doors away.

"Business was dull for Otto Hillig so he posted a sign, reading: 'I'm the best photographer in the county.'

"In a week's time Dan Whittaker's ire was stirred and he put a banner in front of his studio which read: 'I am the best photographer in this town.'

"My friends chided me for a while and then the happy thought was hung in front of my gallery in the words: 'I am the best photographer on this street.' Mine was the only sign that stayed up."

If ill fortune pursues you and you lose everything else, keep your temper.

FOUR SAVED BY FLIGHT

SEATTLE—Rescue by airplane, not as spectacular as the moving picture variety, but equally genuine, saved the lives of four children in Yakima. The children, taken suddenly ill, were in a critical condition when physicians were called, and a telegram to Seattle to the state department of health called for a serum which could not be had at Yakima. Pilot Herbert Munter volunteered to make the flight with the serum over the mountains where it was transferred to a motorcycle officer, arriving in less than two hours at the destination. By train it would have taken six hours, and, according to attending physicians, it would have arrived too late. The four children are declared to be out of danger.

"Reading aloud," says the New York Tribune, "is a lost art." And it was the best way of being put to sleep we knew of.

Gold Dredges Are Being Featured in Palace Grand Film

When "The Hell Diggers" comes to the Palace Grand today picture fans will be fascinated, no doubt, by the wonderful machines whose nickname has given the title to the picture. These are enormous gold dredges used in certain sections of California for scooping up the earth with its precious contents.

When Wallace Reid, the star in this Paramount picture, went on location to work in close proximity to the dredges, he was mightily impressed by the strange, almost lifelike quality of the monster engines.

"They made me think," he said, afterward, "of those strange creatures from Mars, of which H. G. Wells told in 'The War of the Worlds,' and yet they are nothing like them. But they seem human—or superhuman—and their power and capacity are unbelievable."

There is a charming love story in which Lois Wilson is the girl. Frank Urson directed and the story is by Byron Morgan, who made a close study of the "hell diggers."

"Miracles of the Jungle," an absorbing serial, also is on the bill for the week-end while an unusual comedy adds a bit of humor.

Harry E. White Is Getting Ready for Great Valley Fair

A cloud of dust, rising in fine spray, and down the field came a baby Cletrac (tank type) tractor chug-chug-chugging, laying its own track and swiftly plowing a double furrow twelve inches deep.

"No, we're not having a demonstration," remarked Harry E. White, local agent, "we're just getting it ready for the San Fernando fair."

Mr. White has just returned from a two weeks' hunting and fishing trip in the Temescal mountains.

Watching Scoreboard

Yesterday's hero—Bob Meusel, hit two homers, running his season's total to 22 and helped the Yanks beat the White Sox, 11 to 8.

Four runs in the fourth inning gave the Indians a commanding lead and the champions had no trouble trimming the Athletics, 8 to 5.

The Pirates knocked Fillingim out of the box and beat the Braves, 5 to 1. Douglas went the distance in fine shape.

Only 27 batters faced Walter Johnson, who had the best of Davis in a pitchers' duel, the Senators beating the Browns, 1 to 0.

The Phil pitchers were soaked all over the lot by the Cubs who won 10 to 0.

Brooklyn beat the Cards, 9 to 7 in the first game of a double header but lost the second, 3 to 2.

Pennock held the Tigers to two hits, the Red Sox winning 1 to 0.

Hitching your wagon to a star is all right, but you've got to watch the earth to see if there's a good road ahead.

PIPE REPLACEMENT BY BOND ISSUE IS PROPOSED

will make better progress than referring to things that have nothing to do with this council or any member of it."

So the past was forgotten—at least it was no longer referred to—and suggestions were advanced on methods of financing.

Two Plans Proposed

Edward Carvel, an Oak street property holder, made a lengthy statement in which he outlined the two propositions submitted to the voters at the last election for a "straw" ballot, the council to be bound by the one receiving the highest vote. The proposition calling for the affected property owners to pay the cost of pipe replacement was adopted—by a majority of eighteen votes. But this plan, it was declared last night, is meeting with a great deal of protest as being unfair in principle.

So, as a way out, Mr. Carvel suggested that every lot in the city of Glendale, whether served with water or not, be taxed so that a sum sufficient to provide a replacement fund be obtained.

Later in the discussion, J. M. Lind, also of Oak street, made the suggestion that a bond issue be submitted to the voters, the issue providing that all taxable property in the city pay for the interest and retirement of the bonds, instead of providing for the payment from the revenues of the water department, as has been proposed in the past.

"By this plan," said Mr. Lind, "every property holder, whether served with water or not, would bear his share of the cost. The water department is a Glendale institution, owned by all of the people. There is no just reason why all of the people should not bear the expenses, instead of those who take the water."

Meets with Approval

Members of the council declared that Mr. Lind's suggestion and also that made by Mr. Carvel deserved serious consideration and, on an expression from Councilman C. E. Kimlin that he wanted to give the matter a complete study, it was decided to conduct a further investigation.

J. F. Tatlow, also of Oak street, told of the various discussions held by the Oak Street Improvement association and declared that he took the view that the proper way to finance the water service pipe replacements was to "soak everybody." He declared he opposed one getting pipe free and another having to pay for it.

W. F. Tower, owner of property on Oak street, took the same view. He said all should be treated alike.

Just before adjournment Councilman Dwight W. Stephenson made a statement relative to the two propositions submitted to the voters, told why he favored, of the two, the one which was adopted by the voters and closed by asserting that, of the plans of financing so far submitted, he was inclined to favor that proposed by Mr. Lind, although he wanted more time for investigation before finally announcing his decision.

Mr. Carvel expressed his thanks to Councilman S. A. Davis for the efforts he has made to secure an adjustment of the difficulty and also thanked the other members of the council for their fair attitude.

THEY ARE HUMAN, TOO

RICHMOND—Great men are human, and are sometimes susceptible to tea and toast. So says Miss Ethel Watkins of the Lincoln school, who recently entertained at tea no less a personage than Ignace Jan Paderewski, and Mrs. Paderewski. This is the way it happened:

When the organist at a theatre in San Francisco had finished playing a selection, Miss Watkins did not applaud.

"Why don't you applaud?" inquired a distinguished looking, elderly man who was sitting next her.

"Because the man playing does not love his instrument," she replied.

"True, true," answered the man, and they began a conversation in which his wife soon joined. It was not until they had acceptd an invitation to tea that Miss Watkins learned with whom she had been conversing. When they came Paderewski played on Miss Watkins' piano for several hours, and Mrs. Paderewski insisted on going into the kitchen and helping prepare the tea, Miss Watkins relates.

OVER-ANXIOUS, THAT'S ALL

RED BLUFF—Warned by telephone from Redding that a "truckload of jackass" was headed this way, prohibition officers here ambushed themselves along the highway.

The report described the truck and driver minutely, and it was easy for the officers to identify it when it came.

Examination of the cargo, however, revealed a regular, real donkey was being transported in the truck.

Oakland Six Sport Model Is Displayed Here; It Is Beauty

The first Oakland Six sport model was driven to Glendale from Los Angeles yesterday afternoon and is now on display in the showroom of the McClellan & Green Auto company.

"It's already sold," remarked F. W. McClellan, speaking about the exquisitely beautiful new automobile. "Six more Oaklands are on the way and all of them are sold. We ordered two carloads of them. This nifty model is the first of the lot to reach us. We will enter it in the San Fernando show."

The new Oakland six cylinder, four passenger sport model is extra long, providing plenty of foot room before both the front and rear seat. The exterior is enameled light maroon, while the interior is finished in tan Spanish leather which is matched by a brown rug in the tonneau. Cord tires encase the wire wheels. Wide doors provide easy entrance and egress. A weather proof windshield makes driving in all sorts of weather a pleasure. A specially designed steering wheel is arranged so as not to interfere with the chauffeur's convenience. Encased valves, electric starter, oil indicator and electric lights are also features.

Suspect Identified As Implicated in Slaying

SANTA ANA, Sept. 15.—Jose Sanchez, one of eight Mexicans arrested by local officers on suspicion of having been implicated in the killing of John Khoury and beating of Isaac Matouk, Sunday morning, in the robbery of a general merchandise store at Delhi, operated by the two men, was positively identifield by Matouk as one of the men who had clubbed him with a revolver. Sanchez was taken into custody yesterday. Matouk is at the county hospital recovering from the wounds inflicted by the bandits.

MAKE HIMSELF AGREEABLE

MONROVIA—That a mountain park supervisor doesn't necessarily have to look stern and threatening in order to keep pleasure-seekers and picnickers from starting dangerous fires, destroying trees, or leaving the usual "after-picnic" debris, is the belief of Lindley D. Bynum, supervisor of the park owned by the city of Monrovia in Monrovia canyon. Bynum, according to visitors, has initiated a new regime. Instead of looking stern, he hob-nobs with the picnickers, aids the parties in building their camp fires, shows the men where to get wood, and otherwise makes himself useful and agreeable.

By the time Bynum gets done, according to reports, no one would think of starting a dangerous fire, cutting his initials prominently in a tree, or leaving a litter of papers. The park has never been kept in better condition than this year, and the work of supervising it is now a real pleasure, according to Bynum. The park comprises a large district of wild country in the mountains back of Monrovia. Bynum is the son of Thomas Bynum, Monrovia's noted humorist.

TURN ABOUT IS FAIR PLAY

SAN DIEGO—Shipwreck made a friendship, and then renewed it here. Several months ago W. E. Collier, former adjutant of the American Legion, was ship-wrecked near Ancon, Panama Canal zone. W. A. Day, adjutant of the Ancon post, took Collier to his home and entertained him until he was able to return to San Diego. When the steamer San Jose was wrecked off Lower California, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Day were aboard. They were rescued by the U. S. Destroyer Farquhar and landed at San Diego. Now they are visiting the Colliers.

TRY IT ON FRIEND HUSBAND

SANTA ROSA—Wives, here is a trick to teach your husbands,—to make them mail your letters. It was invented by Judge Marvin T. Vaughn, who often used to forget. Now whenever he has a letter to mail he puts it in his hat instead of his pocket.

"I never forget my hat," says the judge, "and consequently don't forget the letters."

Aviator Is Sure Shot

Lieutenant L. T. Kittredge of the Pacific air force made a remarkable record with a Lewis machine gun at San Diego yesterday, while traveling 85 miles an hour in a Vought plane, with Lieutenant E. P. McKellar as pilot. He put 194 shots into a sleeve target, towed by a de Haviland airplane, without a single miss. The scoring was not made in one continuous burst, but in various periods while the de Haviland was twisting and dodging in the air at an altitude of about 2000 feet.

Imperial Residents Complain

Residents of Imperial valley, farmers, merchants and professional men, yesterday went about showing to the state railroad commission that the Southern Pacific railway is charging freight rates, which, they allege, are discriminatory. These rates, if continued, they declare, will seriously injure the prosperity of Imperial valley and force a curtailment of crops and business.

Big Guns Boom October 10

October 10 has been decided upon as the date for beginning actual target practice by the Pacific fleet. Announcement to this effect was made at naval headquarters at San Pedro yesterday. On that date, after approximately a month of dress rehearsals, now in daily progress, the great rifles of all the battleships of the fleet will start blazing away.

Building Business Booms

In order that the Los Angeles building superintendent may be in a position to take care of and properly handle the increasing business of the department, the finance committee of the City Council late yesterday recommended that legislation be enacted at once providing the department with nineteen additional employes.

Norman Selby Indicted

Norman Selby, known as "Kid" McCoy in the prize ring, was indicted yesterday by the county grand jury in connection with the operations of the Texas-Atlantic Oil company. W. L. Wilson, W. L. Barnard and "Big" Otto Breitkreutz, officers of the oil company, are now out on bail on the same charge.

Breakwater For Avalon

Application has been made to the government by the Santa Catalina Island company for permission to construct a rubble stone breakwater 200 feet long with a top width of 10 feet in Avalon bay, Santa Catalina Island, at a point about 250 feet southwesterly from Sugar Loaf.

ARE FOUND IN DIRECTORY

SACRAMENTO—There's a lot in a name, Mr. Shakespere, but (with apologies to Goldberg), it doesn't mean anything. For example, read the city directory. Did you ever hear of W. Harding? No, he's not president, he's a nurseryman, and lives right here in Sacramento. Perhaps you thought William Stephens was governor, but he isn't, he's a mechanic for the California Packing company.

If you look further you'll learn other things. John Q. Adams is a teamster, Jesse James is a stenographer, and James Lowell is an upholsterer for a railroad company. And what's more, you've probably never heard of Edwin Booth. Oh, no, you've not,—not Edwin Booth, the chiropractor.

ried that the regular amount of $5 be forwarded to the Welfare Council together with an additional check for $10 as a gift from the federation. A motion also carried that the amount of $15 be placed at the disposal of Mrs. Horner, chairman of philanthropy, as a reserve fund for use in any emergency cases which might need immediate attention.

Reception for Teachers

The next matter taken up at yesterday's meeting was that of the annual reception for the teachers of all the schools in Glendale. This reception, it was decided, will be held Monday night, October 10.

A motion was also carried to the effect that the invitation which had been extended to have the first district conference meet in Glendale Thursday, October 6, be postponed because of the fact that on that date there were no suitable places available to entertain the guests at luncheon.

Mrs. White announced the fact that next Tuesday will be Child Welfare Day at the San Fernando Valley fair, and that Dr. Caroline Paine Jackman had asked that a committee of three be appointed by the Parent-Teacher federation to help her on the committee to assist as hostesses and also to help the doctors and nurses. Mrs. White appointed Mrs. Townsend Clark, chairman of hygiene, to act as chairman of that committee, and for her to appoint two other members to co-operate with her in that capacity.

Will Attend Meetings

The suggestion of having the executive board of the various Parent-Teacher associations of the city attend the meetings of the Glendale federation found approval and a motion to that effect carried, the different boards having special meeting days set aside for their visit.

Mrs. A. H. Brown announced that Mrs. P. S. McNutt would begin her classes in parliamentary law at the library building next Tuesday.

The presidents of the various Parent-Teacher associations present gave short talks telling some of the things planned for the year's work. Those present were Mrs. Mae Rosenberg of Pacific avenue, Mrs. W. A. Kulp of Intermediate, Mrs. C. H. Thompson of Columbus, Mrs. E. S. McKee of Colorado, Mrs. L. E. Andrews of Cerritos.

After a short recess, during which the members of the federation enjoyed ice-cream cones and cake, the meeting reconvened and a few minor matters of business were taken up, which closed the afternoon's session.

Fewer Dying From Tuberculosis, Report

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 7.—Death rate from tuberculosis in 1920 was the lowest in the history of the state, according to the state board of health bulletin just published.

There were 5397 deaths from the disease last year, the report shows, but of this number almost a fourth were among persons who had lived in California less than ten years and ten per cent were among those who had lived here less than a year.

SCHOOL WILL HAVE BANK

PASADENA—The Pasadena high school will have a regular bank, conducted by the students in true commercial style, with savings department, checking accounts, and every accessory of a real bank except absconding tellers. All student body funds, class funds, scholarship funds and students' personal accounts will be handled in the commercial department, while management of the bank's affairs and participation in its transactions will give the students elementary training in business and banking such as could not be attained in ordinary classes.

Principal Ewing will be president of the bank and Vice Principal O'Mara vice president, but will not be active in the institution. Students will compose its corps of tellers, bookkeepers, cashiers and auditors.

It is estimated that the bank will handle between $50,000 and $60,000 during the year.

AFRAID OF CIVILIZATION

SEATTLE—Jack, the malamute husky dog, straight from the frozen ice floes of Alaska, escaped from the garage where his master, R. Murz, an Alaskan trapper, had him parked. Jack ventured out into that strange, terrifying world of clamor, din and snorting, ponderous vehicles. In the middle of the bewildering street he lost his composure and his presence of mind, and started to run somewhere, anywhere from the noise and confusion. Hours after he was discovered cowering under the steps of a house. Jack's master fears the dog will never be accustomed to the ways of civilization. He whimpers every time he's taken on the street.

With more than 40,000 former residents of Michigan in southern California, at least 10,000 are expected at the big fall reunion in Sycamore Grove park, Saturday, September 17. It will last all day with basket dinners at noon and program following. All Wolverines are urged to come out and meet old friends.

According to tests recently made by the forest products laboratory at Madison, Wis., a cord of heavy wood, such as oak, beech, birch, hard maple, ash, elm, locust and some varieties of cherry, is equal in heating value to a ton of coal.

Orders Jitneys From Streets in Seattle

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 15.—Through an order issued by the department of public utilities, all jitneys were ordered off Seattle's streets.

The order was based upon the state supreme court denial of the jitney men's petition for rehearing of their case, which received an adverse decision in superior court. The only busses authorized to run are the five that are acting as feeders to municipal trolley lines.

'Kick' In Carousel for Feeble-Minded

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 7.—No child is so feeble-minded that he does not enjoy a merry-go-round.
